Child Protection

Quality Area 2: Children's Health and Safety

Periwinkle Preschool is committed to providing an environment that fosters health, development, spirituality, self-respect and dignity, free from violence and exploitation. Periwinkle educators, staff, management and volunteers have a responsibility to defend children's right to care and protection and to ensure their safety, welfare and wellbeing, and a legal responsibility to make a report whenever staff have reasonable grounds to suspect a child or young person is at risk of significant harm or have current concerns about the safety, welfare or wellbeing of a child or young person where the concerns arise during or from their work.

Our goals for child protection are to:

- ensure that every reasonable precaution is taken to protect from harm children being educated and cared for at Periwinkle Preschool
- respond quickly and in line with mandatory reporting legislation whenever a staff member has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child has been harmed or is at risk of significant harm.

Under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, children and young people must receive the care and protection necessary to ensure their safety, welfare and wellbeing. All educators and volunteers of our service are Mandatory Reporters, which means that the law requires them to make a report to the Child Protection Helpline (Phone: 132 111) if they believe a child has suffered significant harm or is at risk of significant harm. We are committed to ensuring all educators and staff have a full understanding of their responsibilities as a Mandatory Reporter and are supported in fulfilling those responsibilities.

Definitions

Mandatory reporters' means people who deliver the following services, wholly or partly, to children as part of their paid or professional work:

4. The child or young person is living in a household where there have been incidents of domestic violence and, as a consequence, the child or young person is at risk of serious physical or psychological harm;
5. A parent or other caregiver has behaved in such a way towards the child or young person that the child or young person has suffered or is at risk of suffering serious psychological harm; or neglects as outlined at Point 1. Reasonable grounds' means that you suspect a child may be at risk of significant harm based on:

1. Your observations of the child, young person or family; or

- Mandatory reporters should note that the legislation requires that they continue to respond to the needs of the child or young person (within the terms of their work role) even after a report to the Child Protection Helpline has been made;
- Monitor the situation and if they believe there is additional information that could be taken into account repeat the steps as outlined above.
